

North Portland Bible College Parental Release

North Portland Bible College warmly welcomes you to a collegiate experience. We hope to make your introduction into higher education a rewarding and memorable experience. As a college student under 18 years of age, you and your family will have special responsibilities and opportunities in your collegiate experience.

As an under 18 student attending courses from North Portland Bible College, we want you to understand the following:

- As a student taking course from North Portland Bible College, you are choosing to be involved in an adult oriented learning environment. Recognizing that you will be learning from course content, instructors, and course discussions that are oriented to a higher education experience. Please realize that some content will not be amended for your age. A collegiate experience is one that demonstrates maturity, respect, and moderated behavior.
- We expect students to abide by all policies of North Portland Bible College in regards to registration, financial obligations, behavior, grading, attendance, and college procedures.
- Grades earned in courses will become part of your official North Portland Bible College transcript and will not be eligible for adjustment at a later date due to your current status as a minor (under 18 years of age). If you have issue with the grades you receive, you will need to submit the Academic Petition form, in accordance with guidelines outlined in the North Portland Bible College Student Handbook. Academic petitions must be submitted within 90 days from the end of the respective term.
- In taking courses from North Portland Bible College, a student will not receive High School credit. North Portland Bible College courses will be outside of your regular High School hours.

Please call or email the NPBC Admissions office with any questions you might have at the number/address listed below.

Blessings,

North Portland Bible College Staff
